Ohh; the perspective has been checked, and the camera position is in the street, at a bus-stop or similar. You must fence off the traffic if you really wish to take this photo for real. You must also provide a platform for the radio-amateur seen in the picture.

... and you have to fix this in a handful of minutes from the "First Strike". The clip is a complete bogus; you don't even have to look at the picture.

:welcome: and we now have a (this is all and whole bogus!!) we have an amateur video, using professional equipment, that now walk into the scene you have set up above. So, on this video, you can actually confirm that the above cut is complete bogus.

(Also in Street level shots and crowds)
Includes an American flag!! This look like Evan Fairbanks angle, but closer to the Tower.
