My video source is the U-tube site Richdell, so you may preview all material there:
<http://www.youtube.com/user/richdell>

The You-tube videos occasionally (mostly) lack a correct audio-video synchronization, and for a spoken presentation, it make everyone look like an idiot. This seems to follow the importance of the material, and when you find a 10% video frame-rate error at one part of Doug Weldon's presentation, a classic conspiratorial idea surface, that the material have been intentionally tampered with.

In this version I have, to best of my ability, re-synced the video/audio. In some places the sync is not perfect, and at a short moment I fail completely to find the correct sync, but this is MUCH BETTER than the U-tube source.

The video has also been processed and filtered to lower the pixelation of the video, and in DivX format you can also load the AVI:s into your DVD player, to look on them on the TV. Your TV-caouch is much preferred, especially for the long presentations.

I include a DivX codec for the Windows computer, in case you don't have it. It is a signed EXE, and it can be updated, but that is optional; The video was compressed with the DivX-version supplied.

To work better on a TV set, the picture was reduced in the frame, as most TV-sets (the analogue things with a tube) don't show the whole complete frame.

Video format is NTSC, mostly, though this seems not to make any difference any more; I have PAL equipment, and it runs just fine.

The compression is not very aggressive, it is 1500kbps-2000kbps, and the material are mostly slow presentations with still pictures.

The presentations focus mostly on the "Zapruder" film, though a general overview of a great many funny things on the JFK assassination is also included.

JFK-style torrents are included; the correctness of this material I cannot vote for. The 911-torrents; I have taken advanced and updated ones. There is also a few general-Hoax-torrents. One of them, in part, relate to the JFK by showing who was involved. Have fun!

ALL TORRENTS SEEDED, but, kindly, I cannot seed much on each one, so do help each other, and be patient. (And if you are not very patient, drop an e-mail.)

Trackers: edit and enter some modern working trackers. I keep a note of working trackers on my site. The seeder and peer shall share at least one tracker.

Visit Simon's site www.cluesforum.info for discussion of current events; the moderators are good at cleaning up the board from insults and garbage; indeed a very lovely forum.

My forum is not intended for debate, but rather as a depository for source material and finished presentations and papers. Kindly write a corrective statement in case you find an error.

To all JFK-reseachers, check my "new-comer"-interpretation in file Secret_Service_Standdown.avi, title taken from a You-tube video.

May peace and truth surround you when you are hit by the next idiotic "event" to promote a new war. This was Tufa on www.tufavideo.net
