"What I Saw" Devin Clark

The "Plane" appears to me moving right while banking left
The "Plane" is completely black while flying in direct sunlight
The camera is centered on the coming explosion, and not on the WTC-1 fire
The actors finish saying their lines at the exact moment the anchor mentions an act of terrorism
The actors read their lines sequentially
The sync sound can be used to measure the TV network feed delay -- and it don't work.

That the video-graphers seems all to claiming to be video-fakers-animators is a funny twist, but is of no significance. Info like this is merely to induce some conspiracy thought.
We no longer believe in Jeff Hills' interviews; but the questions still remains. If the video would be REAL it would be easy to respond to detailed questions.
This one have the "skipping" plane path.
The video angle is like identical to a CBS broadcast.
The foreground houses are on a separate layer, that is moved between takes; comparison other video.
The "fall" of the Towers still remains impossible to implement (with a plane, that is).
In additional to notes, end of video, we may add that the video-amateurs seems to have modern 2010 year HD cameras as well.

...and here it is. The comparison of video and sound tracks of the "TV" heard in background in this video.
